

Need help to travel for medical care?

Hope Air is a charity that provides free flights and accommodations for Canadians in financial need who must reach medical care far from home. Without it, patients would drive for hours, take on unmanageable debt or cancel medical appointments.

Learn more at hopeair.ca.

